her back home where she can see everything is well but on the third night her house is deserted and amy is distraught and inconsolable however she soon learns it is because her mother was missing her so much that she has come to visit and there she is to reassure and comfort amy why do some stories written for children have so powerful an emotional resonance for both child and adult readers this is the question addressed by margaret and michael rustin in a book which offers a detailed critical reading of some of the best known modern british and american stories for children by writers such as e b white philippa pearce and c s lewis the authors make use of psychoanalytical and sociological ideas in their approach interpreting the stories both as metaphors of states of feeling often experienced by children and as images of the wider society in which they are written a particular theme of their discussion is personal and imaginative growth in childhood and the ways this can be affected both for better and worse by separation and loss in their detailed consideration of the narratives of the stories the authors avoid theoretical jargon and concentrate on works which have interest and meaning for adult readers as well as children narratives of love and loss is an important and accessible book which will be of special interest to parents and teachers concerned with children s reading and imaginative play and to those working in the fields of psychoanalysis english literature and popular culture sid peggy and amy adore the two gerbils bubble and squeak but their mother detests them a major family battle results and it s clear life is never going to be quite the same again but after a near fatal encounter between bubble and ginger the cat mrs sparrow begins to see that life with 2 gerbils might not be so bad after all familiar here are stories of everyday life as familiar as a piece of rope and as haunting as fear mike knows that he can t swing over the river on the knotted rope but with everyone watching him he has to try as haunting as a stranger who is the frightened looking girl stealing plums from nicky s grandparents precious tree as haunting as cruelty how can joe escape from his mean cousin dicky during a family reunion haunting and here are stories with a supernatural twist as haunting as the eerie whistling from the hill above burnt house in the middle of the night and as familiar as guilt a boy forgets the mysterious bottle his cousin loaned him but when he sneaks out at night to retrieve it the shadowy whistlers close in on him as familiar as loneliness a ghost who s unbearably lonesome makes his neighbors suffer until a girl with a sense of the absurd shows him how things could be different as familiar as love the ghost of a boy comes back to save his father from dying in a ferocious storm peopled with vivid unforgettable characters this collection of thirty seven stories is by turns mysterious humorous strange and sad but it is always familiar always haunting and always surprising
